Rev. STEPHEN D. PEET, Ph.D., Editor-in-Chief.

Published at 5327 Madison Ave., Chicago, Ill.

Bi-monthly, $4.00 per year.

This journal has reached its twenty-first volume. It is not only the oldest, but for five years was the only journal in the United States devoted wholly to Archaeology. It has from the outset been sustained by the best scholars, and is regarded as authority on all archaeological subjects. It takes the broadest scope, and treats not only of American, but of European, classical, and oriental archaeology, especial attention being given to the archaeology of Bible lands, as Palestine, Egypt, Assyria, and Babylonia.

A large staff of associate editors has been secured. The duty of each associate is to furnish notes of explorations and discoveries in the different countries of the world. The following are the names of the associate editors with their departments geographically distributed:

Dr. D. G. Brinton—Europe.
Rev. Dr. Wm. C. Winslow—Egypt.
Rev. Dr. J. N. Fardenburgh—Assyria.
Rev. Herbert N. Gowen—China.
Dr. John Fraser—Polynesia.

Books on Greek Archaeology and Antiquities.

A HAND-BOOK OF GREEK SCULPTURE.

By ERNEST A. GARDNER,
Formerly Director of The British School of Archaeology at Athens.

In One Volume. Cloth.
Price, $2.50.

For greater convenience the First Part issued more than a year ago, and the Second Part only recently published, are bound in one, but those who already have one volume can purchase the other separately if preferred at $1.25.

A reviewer in The Nation comments:—

"It is concise, yet thoroughly readable, and its half-tone illustrations are uniformly good. In this book we have for the first time in English a thoroughly competent history of Greek sculpture. It is a pleasure to be able to recommend almost without qualification a book on a subject which has been much at the mercy of the incompetent and the reckless."

THE SCULPTURED TOMBS OF HELLAS.

By PERCY GARDNER, Litt.D.,
Professor of Classical Archaeology and Art in the University of Oxford.

Imperial 8vo. Cloth.
Price, $8.00.

WITH 30 PLATES AND 87 ENGRAVINGS IN THE TEXT.

From The Nation:—

"This beautiful book is welcome to all who believe in classical archaeology as a study which may bring into prominence the humanitarian side of classical studies. It is equally serviceable for the general reader and for the scholar, since it deals competently with the whole subject in hand, without being voluminous. Of its 259 pages, nearly fifty are occupied by the engravings in the text, which are a wonderfully complete supplement to the thirty well-executed and selected full-page plates. Professor Gardner has successfully studied a brevity which sacrifices nothing essential because it suppresses all labored descriptions of monuments, and depends upon adequate representations of the monuments themselves."

The Bayeux Tapestry. A History and Description. By FRANK REDE FOWKE.
79 Plates. Imperial 16mo. Sateen, gilt top. Price, $3.50, net.

Some twenty-five years ago Mr. Fowke published a volume on the Bayeux Tapestry. It has long been unobtainable, and the present volume is issued in response to a demand for a new edition. The reproductions of the tapestry have been made from an entirely new process, which for work of this kind is quite superior to the ordinary "process-block."
